

The BBQ organizer is required to ensure compliance with the City of Edmonton rules for hosting a neighbourhood BBQ.

For information on planning and permits, see:

https://www.edmonton.ca/residential\_neighbourhoods/neighbourhoods/block-parties-play-streets

You can find the current City of Edmonton Covid restrictions at https://www.edmonton.ca/programs\_services/emergency\_preparedness/covid-19. Please ensure compliance to these rules at your event.

There are a limited number of packages available so ensure you apply early. If applying after August 15 please email treasurer@terwillegar.org to ensure there are packages left.

The package consists of a $150 gift card for Save on Foods and a 15% discount on checkout when using the gift card. The gift card needs to be completely spent on checkout.

Participant households are only eligible to sign up for one barbeque per year.

Any photos of your BBQ event are appreciated so we can include in our paper (Terwillegar Tribune).

Please complete the first page of this application and email a copy to treasurer@terwillegar.org.
